Product description

A work platform is always handy if you have to work at height for an extended period. The Altavista 700 is a practical, foldable platform made of aluminium. The wide platform provides comfort when standing and gives you that little lift that you need to get your jobs done around the house.

The lightweight platform is very stable. The automatic lock means you can be sure that you are safe. The Altavista 700 is extremely compact when collapsed. So store it easily in a garage or shed
